August 26—29, 2004

(be sure to mention NAFUSA 67AOUD//STL)

With the Honorable Jane Reno leading the way, this years conference is as good as it gets. Judge John S. Martin, Southern District of New York; Joe Whitley, Chief Counsel Homeland Security; Professor John Conley, University of North Carolina Law School; Professor Stephen D. Easton, Missouri University School of Law; and our pal, Professor Leon Friedman, Hofstra University Law School all make their unique contributions to this great Continuing Legal Education program. We also are fortunate once again, to have the participation of the Executive Office of United States Attorneys with some new faces (Continued on back...)

Here's the line-up for the best C.L.E. program ever!

J. Malcolm Bales • MaryBeth Buchanan • John Conley • Lou DeFalaise • Stephen Easton • Leon Friedman • Hon. John S. Martin • Bill Mercer • Hon. Janet Reno • Joe D. Whitley

Don't miss your chance to attend this year's conference!

We all met Mary Beth Buchanan, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, at last years conference in Las Vegas. She held the position of Chairman of the Attorney General's Advisory Committee at the time. She's still the U.S. Attorney out there in Pittsburg, but now she's the Executive Director of EOUSA. Bill Mercer, U.S. Attorney for Montana has replaced Ms. Buchanan as Chairman of the AGAC. He will join us in Asheville. Our friend, Lou De Falaise will also be there to share his insight.

Malcolm Bales, (John M. Bales, Jr.) this year's recipient of NAFUSA's J.Michael Bradford Award, joins us from the Eastern District of Texas. This is quite a guy, but haven't all our winners been exceptional? He too will be an integral part of our CLE program. His proud parents, Colonel and Mrs. John M. Bales, Sr. are coming along. NAFUSA needs to salute itself on the prestige and excitement our award has generated across the land.

You still have time to join the golf tournament if you contact sam@currinlaw.com for details or see the form on our website nafusa.org Already over 20 people are registered –both men and women groups. Deadline is August 1st for registration and early arrival play so don't hesitate, contact Sam Currin today! A truly spectacular course awaits you –just pack those clubs and expect a great game.
